Tour 33 June 26-27 Kentucky Adventure

Kentucky is an exciting place to visit. The attractions are so numerous, it is difficult to decide where to go first. We've designed this tour to give you a glimpse of three destinations in this beautiful state. The city of Lexington is the perfect place to begin our adventure. Home of 450 horse farms, Lexington is considered the Horse Capital of the World. We'll tour Lexington and you will see up close the horse farms. Bardstown is the heart of Kentucky where you will find history, creative people and southern hospitality. Take a ride on the My Old Kentucky Dinner Train. The train travels through the Kentucky countryside in restored 1940's dining cars pulled by diesel electric engines. The meal served en route recaptures the experience of vintage American railroad dining. After a good nights sleep in Bardstown, we continue our Kentucky journey to Louisville, for a luncheon cruise on the Spirit of Louisville.

Tour 54 August 25-28 Ocean City, Maryland

We are please to offer an Ocean City Maryland tour again this year. Relax by the ocean, take a swim in the hotel pool, sightseeing, good food to eat, and making new friends. This is what you can expect on the ocean tour. This four-day tour has lots of sightseeing and lots of beach time.

For a complete list of tour highlight and pricing, please contact our office for a special "Ocean City" brochure

Tour 55 August 27 Amish & Beyond

Just beyond the Amish Country in Ohio great things are waiting for you. Come along with us to explore beyond the Amish country. We travel to Wooster, Ohio and tour the Rubbermaid factory and you can take advantage of their low prices in the gift shop. We also take a factory tour at the Cat's Meow. We've all seen those black cats that sit in the window or on the door frame...you can actually see how they are made at the Cat's Meow. Lunch will be at the When in Rome Italian Villa. Remember when milk was bottled the old fashioned way with the cream on top? We'll tour the Hartzler Family Dairy, where they still bottle milk the old-fashioned way.

Tour 56 Aug 29-Sept 2 Labor Day in New York

New York ... Fun City ... The Big Apple. It's a really BIG place and the best way to get the BIG picture is to sit back, relax and leave all the details to us. You will see monuments that define history, to towering, glistening skyscrapers, to a little red lighthouse under a huge suspension bridge. Join us on this exciting tour; take in the sights and the fascinating history behind the “city that never sleeps”. You’ll take a three hour cruise to get the BIG picture that shows the best view of the Statue of Liberty. We’ll visit such places as The Empire State Building Observatory, the Guggenheim Museum, American Museum of Natural History and Museum of Modern Art, Intrepid Sea-Air-Space Museum and more. We’ve also included two Broadway plays, dinner at The View at the Marriott Marquis, the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island , and an evening dinner cruise.
